

Don't grieve for me, for now I'm free
I'm following the path God laid for me.
I took His hand when I heard Him call
I turned my back and left it all I could not stay another day
To laugh, to love, to work or play
Tasks left undone must stay that way
I found that peace at the close of the day
If my parting has left a void
Then fill it with remembered Joy
A friendship shared, a laugh, a kiss Ah, yes, these things I too will miss
Be not burdened with times of sorrow
I wish for you the sunshine of tomorrow
My life has been full, I've savored much
Good friends, good times, a loved one's touch
Perhaps my time seemed all too brief
Don't lengthen it now with undue grief
Lift up your heart and share with me
God wanted me now, He set me FREE!

Caroline Bronowski
February 23, 1964

April 18, 2026

Caroline Helena Bronowski, 62, of Sidney, Montana, peacefully returned to the Lord on Saturday, April 18, 2026, surrounded by her family.

Caroline was born on February 23, 1964, in Plentywood, Montana, to Helen and Lyle Frounfelter. She graduated from Sidney High School in 1982.

Caroline found her greatest happiness in the laughter and warmth of time with family. She cherished summer camping trips, where she delighted in fishing for walleye on Lake Sakakawea and sharing joyful moments playing lawn games with her grandchildren. She also traveled to places like Mexico and Jamaica, savoring the sun and serenity of the beach. As an avid fan of Minnesota sports teams, attending Twins games with loved ones also brought her joy. At home, she took great pride in nurturing her vibrant flowerbeds, landscaping, and gardens, finding joy in watching them bloom.

A devoted mother and grandmother, Caroline rarely missed her children's or grandchildren's activities. She cherished baking, playing cards, and enjoying board games with them.

Caroline attended Pella Lutheran Church in Sidney. Her radiant smile and boundless warmth lit every room she entered. Above all, she will be remembered for her profound love for family and friends, which touched all who had the privilege of knowing her.

On June 4, 1983, Caroline married Brian Bronowski in Sidney. They shared 42 years of marriage, building a life centered on love and family, not only becoming best friends but also developing an unwavering support for one another. Together, they raised three children and were blessed with four grandchildren.

Caroline began her career at McDonald's in Sidney when it opened in 1983. In 2006, she moved to Gem City Motors, where she worked until her planned retirement on May 4 this year. In both roles, she was known for her kindness and genuine care for others. She loved sharing stories about her daughters and grandchildren.
