In Loving Memory Of

Gregory Volz

October 25, 1963 - February 26, 2026

NOT, HOW DID HE DIE,
but how did he live?
NOT, WHAT DID HE GAIN,
but what did he give?

THESE ARE THE UNITS TO MEASURE THE WORTH
OF A MAN AS A MAN,
 REGARDLESS OF BIRTH.

NOT, WHAT WAS HIS CHURCH,
nor what was his creed?

BUT HAD HE BEFRIENDED THOSE REALLY IN NEED?
 WAS HE EVER READY, WITH WORD OF GOOD CHEER,

TO BRING BACK A SMILE,
to banish a tear?

NOT, WHAT DID THE SKETCH IN THE NEWSPAPER SAY,

BUT HOW MANY WERE SORRY
WHEN HE PASSED AWAY?

Gregory Allen Volz was born in Ray, North Dakota, to Arnold and Lila Volz. He spent many years in Arizona, where he raised his family and built a close-knit community of lifelong friends. In later years, Greg returned to North Dakota, where he cherished spending time with family, reconnecting with old friends, and forming many new friendships.

Known for having the loudest laugh in the room and an extraordinary ability to make something special out of even the simplest moments, Greg brought joy wherever he went. He was a compassionate, sentimental, and generous man who was always willing to lend a helping hand, even during his own most difficult times. His kindness, sense of humor, and genuine care for others touched countless lives. No matter where life took him, Greg had a remarkable gift for creating a sense of community and making everyone feel welcome. He will be deeply missed by all who had the privilege of knowing and loving him.

"I'm a fan of living your life to the fullest by doing what you love."

Dale Earnhardt
