

Church on the Prairie

when my spirit begins to weary and my thoughts become dreary
I drift back in time to my old
Church on the Prairie.

Happy times, sad times, family times,
friend times, Always, faithful times.

with a shining cross atop her steeple,
she beckons me, my old
Church on the Prairie.

And when my time has come
and my work is done,
I'll go home to my old Church on the Prairie,

To see family and friends and share once again,
Happy time, sad times, friend times, family times, Always, reverent times.

At our old Church on the Prairie.

Jeffrey Scott Fox, 67, of Minot, ND passed away on Tuesday, September 1st, 2026, in Minot, North Dakota.

He was born in Williston, ND on October 11, 1958 to Lyle and Ellen (Lee) Fox. Although he started his schooling days in McGregor, he ultimately graduated from Tioga High School with the class of 1976.

Jeff is survived by his loving wife of 46 years, Phyllis Fox; three children, Travis, Tanner and Erin (Tom); five grandchildren, Anna, Abby, Max, Lilly & Hudson; brother, Jamison (Lisa) Fox; five nephews, Clay, AJ and Jed Fox and Casey and Cody Meyers; brother-in-law, Robert L.
